

TEACHING LEARNING METHODOLOGIES

CHALK BOARD METHOD

Blackboard method is a course management system which allows us to provide content in a student centered environment allows the students to grasp knowledge quickly and efficiently with visual representation.

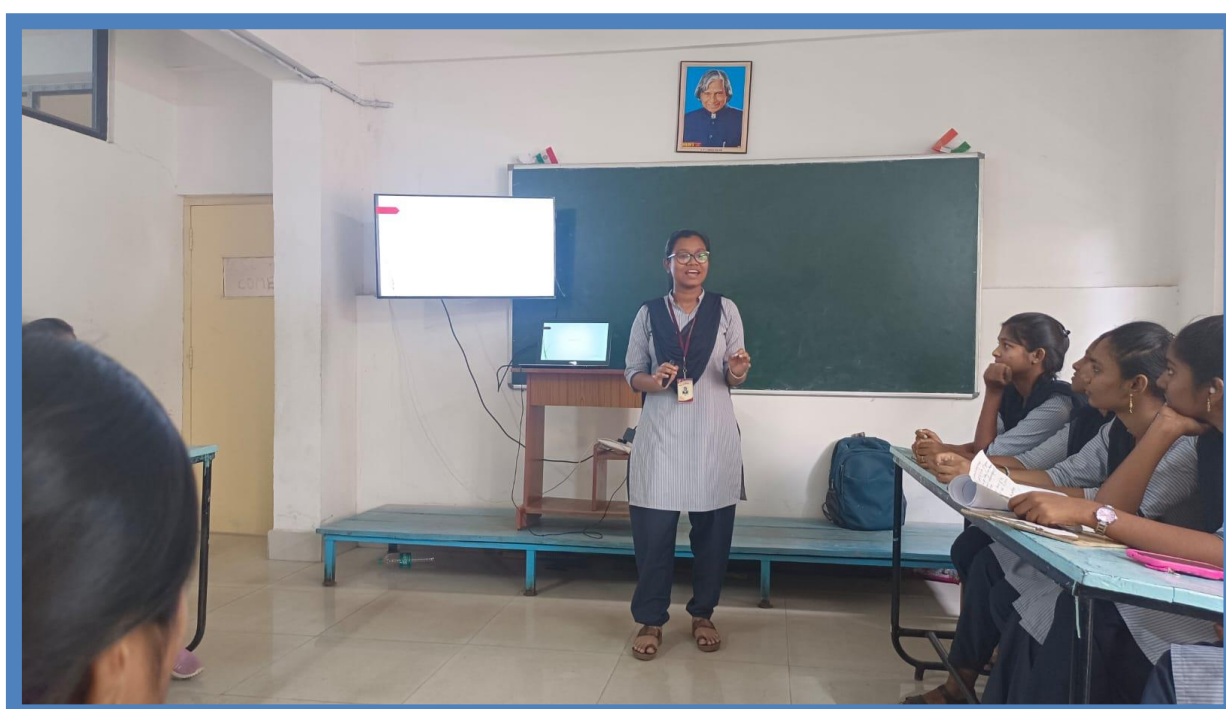

STUDENT SEMINARS

Students become active independent speakers by participating in seminars. Improving communication as well as presentation skills enhances their knowledge levels and team learning skills.

ICT BASED LEARNING

ICT based learning is a method of delivering learning material via information and communication technologies i.e. web based, computer based, videos etc. The students will be able to acquire knowledge and skills in a better way and develop to think for themselves.

GROUP DISCUSSIONS

As a part of implementing our academic curriculum, we organized a group discussion. The students are divided into two groups, group-A and group-B. The topic is initiated by the faculty coordinator

TOPIC: USE OF ELECTRONIC GADGETS IN CLASSROOMS

OBJECTIVE: TO CREATE AWARENESS ON THE TOPIC AND ENHANCE THE SPEAKING SKILLS OF STUDENTS

ADVANTAGES OF THE TOPIC GIVEN BY GROUP A

- 1. It serves as a resource hub for acquiring subject knowledge
- 2. It saves time and energy etc.

DISADVANTAGES OF THE TOPIC GIVEN BY GROUP B

- 1. Misuse of gadgets by students.
- 2. It replaces the teachers.
- 3. It is not affordable by everyone.

As a mark of review the students boosted up their confidence levels and successfully

The students though felt embarrassed and shy to speak in the beginning ,they were able to speak out the merits and demerits after taking a little comfort with the surroundings.

The overall discussion seemed to positive picture of the discussion. Every student showed enthusiasm for grasping the maximum knowledge of the topic. They tried their best to convey their ideas with clarity of thought and speech. event came to an end.

The faculty coordinator concluded the main points of importance.

OUTCOME:

The students are successful in comprehending and interpreting their thoughts effectively and proved to boost up their speaking skills.
